THE COAL STRIKE.

AMERICAN LABOUR AIDS BRITISH MINERS.

HAMPERING EXPORTATION.

NEW YORK, October 24.

The Central Federated Union, which proposes to aid the coal miners of Britain by hampering the exportation of coal, has passed a resolution asking the Government to return to wartime control of distribution. The Longshoremen's Union announced that it would urge fellow-workers not to load coal except what was necessary to meet the requirements of vessels.

FRENCH TRADE.

INCREASED IMPORTS AND EXPORTS.

PARIS, October 24.

French imports for the first nine months of 1920 are valued at 27,189,000,000 francs, and the exports at 16,500,000,000 francs, increases of 2,500,000,000 francs and 9,850,000,000 francs, respectively, compared with the corresponding period for 1919.

SWEDISH POLITICS.

WHY THE CABINET RESIGNED.

STOCKHOLM, October 23.

The resignation of the Cabinet was due to the refusal of the Liberals to co-operate with the Social Democrats in the formation of a coalition government. The Social Democrats did not obtain an absolute majority at the recent elections.

NON-PARTY CABINET OF EXPERTS.

STOCKHOLM, October 24.

After conferring with the leaders of the Conservative and Liberal Parties, the King requested Baron Louis Degeer, Governor of the Province of Christianstad, to form a non-party cabinet of experts.

CHINESE IMPORT DUTIES.

OBJECT OF NEW SINO-AMERICAN TREATY.

WASHINGTON, October 22.

The State Department explains that the new Sino-American Treaty providing for graduated increases of import duties into China on tobacco, sugar, spirits and luxuries instead of the present 5 per cent. flat rate, is designed to make effective as regards imports to China the revised tariffs recommended by the International Tariff Commission at Shanghai in 1918. These schedules have been accepted by the other parties to the Treaty of 1903 under which import duties to China are limited to five per cent. ad valorem.

ST. JOHN'S CATHEDRAL.

ORGAN RECITAL.

There was a good attendance at St. John's Cathedral last night when Mr. Denman Fuller, F.R.C.O., I.R.A.M., gave a recital, assisted by Mrs. W. H. Bell as vocalist. The programme included some well known compositions all of which were appreciated. Nevins' Water Scene was splendidly rendered and the same may be said of Rubenstein's "Melody in F." The outstanding item was probably Gullmeier's Grand Choeur. Mr. Fuller also played "The Storm" by Lemmens which is always a favourite here. Mrs. Bell sang "The Lord is my Shepherd" (Handel) and "The King of Love" (Gounod) doing well in both. Mr. Denman Fuller gave his organ recital last evening under exceedingly difficult conditions. The sudden dryness of the last few days has played havoc with the Cathedral Organ and although every possible precaution to cope with it has been taken, one of the heavy pressure reservoirs split from end to end yesterday and leaks developed at once in the whole of the wind system so that it was impossible to get enough wind to use the instrument to any extent. A large section of the organ had at once to be opened up and the defective parts leathered, repaired and screwed in order for the instrument to be used at all. This work was only finished an hour or so before the recital and Mr. Denman Fuller had to play a heavy programme physically fatigued and without having had any chance of playing it through before-hand. The difficulty of such a task can hardly be appreciated by those unfamiliar with the labour necessary to keep a large organ in good condition in such climates as this or who are unaware of the strains of playing heavy programmes on a large instrument without proper time for their rehearsal.

A farewell dinner will be given to Mr. B. Tanner, Head Master of Queen's College, this evening by Mr. Lee Hyean at his residence on the occasion of Mr. Tanner's departure for England. The members of the European and Chinese Staff of Queen's College will also be present and a very enjoyable evening should be spent.

SINKING OF A STEAMER.

JUDGMENT AT LAST.

A LONG DRAWN OUT CASE.

On Oct. 11 judgment was given in the Osaka Chibo Saibansho in a long-drawn-out case, in which Messrs. Murakami & Co., of Akita prefecture, claim from the Osaka Shosen Kaisha damages, amounting to ¥3,322,925, on the ground that the loss of the steamer "Fuji Maru" (2,118 tons) in a collision with the O.S.K. steamer "Taichi Maru" on April 26th, 1915, off Korea was due to negligence on the part of the Captain of O.S.K. steamer. The verdict went against the Osaka Shosen Kaisha and the shipping company was ordered to pay to the plaintiff firm ¥184,965 as damages. The suit was instituted in October 1916. At first, the damages claimed were ¥220,000. This figure was subsequently increased to ¥380,000. With the steady advance in the price of vessels and charterage, consequent upon the European hostilities, the sum claimed as damages continued to rise. The plaintiff firm estimated the price of the lost ship at ¥1,812,750, and the charterage, which it thought would have been realised from the steamer, vessel from May 1915 till December 1917, at ¥1,510,175, claiming the total of ¥3,322,925 as damages. In fact, the amount of the original claim was multiplied almost sixteen times. It is said that in point of the sum of damages claimed the present case constitutes a record in the Osaka Chibo Saibansho, and that the result of the suit would affect the rate of dividend to be declared by the Osaka Shosen Kaisha. Naturally, it has been claiming much attention in shipping circles.

The Englishman says: Now that India is on the edge of developing an industrialism of her own what is badly needed is a new and complete economic survey of the country. No one knows exactly what the resources of India in the way of raw material are. We are now engaged on scientific lines much needed capital, now locked away in lands or in banks, might be forthcoming.

OIL FOR FRANCE.

PARIS, October 21st.

It is generally believed that the subsidiary Standard Oil Company, entitled the Standard Franco-American, in addition to the Standard Oil Company's products on the French market, will devote a considerable capital to the exploration of petroleum strata in France and the French Colonies in order that France may have a national supply of oil, which will be invaluable by the fact that the Standard Oil Co. in war-time has under-taken an enterprise where the control is left to non-American capital.

ALASKAN AERIAL EXPEDITION.

NEW YORK, October 21st.

It is understood that the Commander of the Alaska Aerial Expedition recommends a regular aerial service to Alaska and reports that he frequently sighted herds of reindeer, caribou, bear and mountain sheep. The Indians find at the approach of the machines.

MINNEAPOLIS, October 21st.

Four United States Army aeroplanes, which started on July 15th for a trip to Alaska and back, have completed a round trip of 9,000 miles. The object was to establish an aerial route to the north-west corner of the American continent and photograph otherwise inaccessible areas in Alaska.

FIRE ON "ZACA."

PORT OF SPAIN (Trinidad), Oct. 22nd. The British cruiser Cambrion and the Canadian Government steamer Farmer succeeded in beaching the United States Shipping Board steamer Zaca on which a fire had broken out. Efforts are being made to arrest the flames by flooding the hold.

DAYLIGHT BANK RAID.

CLEVELAND, October 22nd.

An attempt on the part of thieves to carry off $50,000 from a safe in the Cleveland Trust Company's Bedford branch, in broad daylight, was foiled by a brave clerk, Petre, who gave the alarm to the town. A pistol battle followed. Two handies were killed. Petre was seriously wounded. Four robbers were captured, four escaped. The money was recovered intact.

WAR FINANCE CORPORATION.

WASHINGTON, October 22nd.

The Bankers' Association has decided to request President Wilson to re-organise the War Finance Corporation for the purpose of aiding the export of cotton, wheat and other agricultural products.

U.S. PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGN.

NEW YORK, October 21st.

The Presidential campaign is becoming acrimonious. Governor Cox, in a speech at Boston, denounced Senator Harding and Senator Lodge for opposition to the League of Nations, and described Senator Lodge as "the arch-conspirator of the age." He declared that Senator Harding was deliberately attempting to deceive the people on the League issue.

Mr. Elihu Root, in his first campaign speech at Carnegie Hall, declared that Article X of the Covenant of the League meant a throwback to the old discredited alliance. He was of opinion that a large majority of Americans earnestly desired an organisation of civilised nations which may co-operate to prevent future wars, and that the United States should do her full share in it. He urged that the provisions of the Covenant should be changed to meet American objections.

STRAITS RUBBER FOR RUSSIA.

LONDON, October 22nd.

In an interview, Mr. W. F. Began, who, on behalf of the Rubber Planters' Union, has arranged a two million sterling contract for supplying rubber to Russia, said that the rubber will be delivered from March, 1921 to December, 1922 and declared himself satisfied with the arrangement by which the rubber will be paid for in Russian paper currency, while for 1922 gold will be paid in Amsterdam. He emphasised that the money paid by Russia in the deal will be switched on to the Federated Malay States, the British Government drawing the Excess Profits Tax, thus helping to reduce the National Debt.

CHINESE STUDENTS IN FRANCE.

A GIRL STOWAWAY.

TEN DAYS IN HOLD.

WAIST DEEP IN WATER.

Few women have suffered so much for love's sake as Miss Jean Tucker, of Portsmouth, England. She is only 22 years of age. After spending ten days in a black hole, 4ft. by 6ft., in the extreme bow of the American liner "Philadelphia," she was drawn up through a manhole on Monday night. Miss Tucker, who was covered with grime and suffering excruciating pain from rheumatism, was then too weak to stand. During the dreadful days of her experience the woman, who was attired in man's overalls was up to her waist in water. Rats swarmed over her, when she was overcome by illness and weariness, and tried to sleep. Whenever the ship rolled she was dashed from side to side of her prison, suffering, moreover, the agonies of sea-sickness. The only air which came to her was through a locker overhead in which potatoes had been stored.

Of food and drink she had as much as she could take, as it was passed down to her by a stoker, for whose sake she had hidden herself while the ship was lying at Southampton. Once she said, she had given herself and the "Philadelphia" up for lost. This was when a shock as of a collision against a bow-plate beside her threw her off her feet. The noise was repeated several times, and she concluded that the liner had struck a rock and was pounding upon it.

The officers understood at once that she had heard a whale into which the ship had run, as it flailed the bow with its great tail until it was released when the liner was backed away from it.

It was through the actions of the girl's stoker sweetheart, Edward Manning, who is alleged to have smuggled her aboard, and of one of his mates, James Fallon, that she was discovered by the officers.

Women steerage passengers had complained of the loss of clothing and various articles. On Monday night, many hours after the ship had been docked, Manning was noticed on deck with a bundle of woman's clothes.

While the officers were questioning him, they heard screams below in the bow of the ship, and, rushing to the main deck, caught Fallon, they say, trying to pull Miss Tucker through the manhole.

The two stokers were locked in the brig for the night, and later were removed to the Tombs Prison by the police, pending their arraignment on a charge of violating the law by attempting to smuggle an alien into the country. Manning is said to be an American citizen.

After receiving medical attention, Miss Tucker was sent to the immigration station at Ellis Island, where she is detained.

She said she had been induced to undertake the adventure because Manning had threatened to commit suicide if she would not come to New York and marry him.

TRUTH, JUSTICE, PUBLIC SERVICE.

HONGKONG, TUESDAY, OCT. 26, 1920.

THE SHIPPING DISPUTE.

The North China Daily News on October 20 came out with a leader, evidently meant to be impartial, in which it advised the shipping companies to accept arbitration. "The spirit of the age favours arbitration," it said, "and if the Companies refuse, it will be difficult for them to escape odium, however clear their case may be." That is the issue, and that was the point, emphasised by the China Mail. The minute we saw the copy of the memorandum from the Shanghai Consulate, quoted by the China Mail on October 18, we saw where the Companies stood on this issue. The agreement of 1916, providing for a Board of Adjustment, and failing that for Arbitration, said that future disputes "may be" so referred. The Guilds failed to notice the absence of "shall be," and, as the N.C. Daily News points out, "it is certainly reasonable to suppose that the Guilds intended to get permanent machinery of arbitration and believed they had got it." On the document as it stands the lawyers will certainly say they did not get it, for "may" does not equal "shall"; but as the China Mail argued on October 18, the issue does not depend on the textual niceties of any such document. The principle of arbitration is established by general consent, on our Shanghai contemporary expresses it, by favour of "the spirit of the age." Either party refusing to refer and submit to arbitration puts itself in the wrong at once. The Companies contend, according to our contemporary, that this Board of Adjustment was set up to deal only with the dispute of 1916, and automatically disappeared when the terms of that settlement had disappeared. They certainly refused to call the Board terms. (We recall the recent local instance in which the companies objected to an impartial expert.) So instead of getting real arbitrators, they get prejudiced champions and special pleaders, whose only chance for agreement lies in splitting the difference. Arbitration should not be like that. When the Guilds asked, first for 50, and then for 30 per cent. increase, the Companies offered 10 as their best and final word. Genuine arbitration would ignore both demand and offer, and consider the terms de more, from the roof. With this view we can agree to a suggestion by our Shanghai contemporary, and advise the Guilds not to quibble against it, that the Companies should agree to arbitration, but on condition that "the whole position be surveyed as from the conclusion of the last arbitration in 1917." Moreover, arbitration should work both ways. Certainly. Who ever dared to say it should not? If we heard of the men objecting to arbitration to consider a proposed reduction of wages, we should side with the employers and against them. But our contemporary indulges in still another suggestion with which we cannot agree. Indeed, we violently and vehemently disagree with it. It is suggested that "the Companies might circulate the whole of their Floating Staff with a simple statement of the financial position, the present claim to remain in advance pending the men's vote." We know these "simple statements," in which figures are ingeniously juggled with for the deceiving of simple men. We admit, of course, that the Guild members are "not ignorant labourers." Neither are we; but we should employ an expert accountant to analyse such figures for us. A man may not be "ignorant," and yet be daddled by wangled figures. This form of prospectus art has been brought to wonderful pitch of excellence, and we presume that the shipping companies can afford to employ artists. We have already had a first instalment of evidence that they can and do.

COAL STRIKE.

Now it would seem there is yet hope that the coal strike will not take place. Men and Ministers still talk terms; the transport workers postpone their sympathetic strike. Having gone so far, the men would not have stopped without some pledge of honest treatment.

In our notes yesterday we omitted to explain that the Ministers prefer these coal profits to fair taxation, which would cost them votes. Fisher, the education man, was not the "hon." when he said the coal profits under control were an "estimate and an estimate only." They are, as yesterday's figures showed, tangible assets. The Ministers prefer the "indirect taxation" of making the Home coal consumer pay to additional burdens on the producers whom they have already annoyed. Hence the stubborn fight they have made. They are fighting for existence—as Ministers. But as the strike would end their careers, they seem ready now to choose the other chance.

INCIDENTAL ARGUMENT.

The next most amusing thing to hearing illiterate men arguing about religion is to hear half-educated men arguing economics, labour questions, etc. A favourite impasse is the rival claims of labour and of capital as "creators" of wealth. No wealth without labour, says the worker, and no productive labour without contrivance, retorts the capitalist or pro-capitalist. We have seen it argued on the bogus analogy of Mr. Denman Fuller and his organ-blower. The part played by physical labour in the production of wealth is not more important, this one said; than the part of the organ-blower in the production of music. Even for Fullerian music the blower is indispensable, although by himself he could not produce one chord. But wealth is not music nor music wealth. Nor, and this is where the oversight came in, is capital contrivance. Capital is the product of labour plus contrivance, and every labour dispute should have for its main issue the sharing of the produced wealth between the workers and the contrivance. If every capitalist were a contrivance-producing production—the problem would be simpler. But society has managed to get itself into a blind alley where capital itself (which Nature provides, and work-plus-contrivance reaches forth and takes) arrogates rights and claims. We must also consider carefully what we mean by contrivance. All labour has a little contrivance mixed with it, even in the simplest forms of drudgery. But the claimant contrivance is that which directs and organizes labour. On the favourite "desert island" of the debater, where society's notions of equity would be simpler than ours are, it would be agreed that the contrivance, as having the easier and pleasanter job, should be content with equal or even smaller shares of the product. We give them more, and their appetite has grown until labour's claims seem to them preposterous. Moreover, mere ownership of capital previously contrived and worked for, puts in extravagant claims to participate.

Two plots of Crown land (Inland lot No. 2312 and Kowloon Inland lot No. 1402) were auctioned at the offices of the Public Works Department yesterday afternoon. The first lot, which has an area of 28,215 sq. ft., was sold to Mr. Wu Sik for $82,822. The annual rental is $162. There was keen competition for the second lot which consists of 14,681 sq. ft. of land, the annual rental being $168. Mr. Chow Tin Pong, of No. 55 Bonham Strand, was the purchaser, paying $38,500, or double the upset price.

The various convents, especially the Italian Convent, are now congested with refugees (women and children) from the war-stricken districts in the interior. Some are not Christians, but as they are relatives of followers of the faith they are given assistance. Many refugees are also being looked after by Chinese Catholics, families at Yumati, Kowloon, Hunghom and Teintatsui. When circumstances admit of their returning to their villages, the Catholic Mission will see that they are provided with passages.

A message to the Japan Advertiser on October 15 stated that Mr. A. Gregory of Jardine, Matheson and Company of Yokohama was struck by a train near Shioya the previous night, and so badly injured that he died soon afterward. Mr. Gregory was returning home after a reception to the crew of the submarine supply ship "Titania" at Captain Watson's home. He and his friend, Mr. A. B. Elton were walking home together. Mr. Elton narrowly escaped being injured. Mr. Gregory is survived by his widow and a four months old baby, both of whom are now in Yokohama.

Coal plays such an important part in the industrial world today that it is hard to realise that 180 years ago the colliers could go on strike without attracting the slightest attention. It is recorded that in 1765 the colliers went on strike for some weeks, yet none of the principal papers recorded it. It is suggested, however, that the absence of comment was not without a reason, the grievance of the colliers being such as to reflect badly on the mineowners. In an appeal for subscriptions to a fund for the victims of a colliery disaster in 1767 the Newcastle Journal stated that details of the disaster were omitted, "as we have been requested to take no particular notice of these things." Colliery disasters in Japan receive almost as scanty description. Japan Chronicle.

Mr. Obata, Japanese Minister in Peking, Kokusai informs us, has told the Chinese Foreign Office that one of Japan's immediate intentions is to root out malcontent Koreans from Manchuria. This, observes the Japan Chronicle, is very much as though Sir Auckland Geddes called on Mr. Bainbridge Colby and told him that, in pursuance of Mr. Lloyd George's plans for the pacification of Ireland, all the troops that Canada could spare were coming over to root out the Irishmen from the United States and that some more troops were coming over from England to assist in the good work. If Sir Auckland did such a thing Mr. Colby would probably telephone for a doctor and a strait waistcoat, rather than impress on that the British Ambassador had a brainwave. But what would be considered frantic in Washington is the calmest actuality in Peking.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Among the passengers who left Hongkong by the C.P.O.S. "Monteagle" was the Hon. Mr. John Johnston.

Owing to a sudden depression in the motor trade, Sopwith Aviation and Engineering Works at Kingston are closed, the company having decided to go into voluntary liquidation. About 1,600 hands are being discharged.

The following officers have been appointed to ships on the China Station—Acting-Lieutenant R.A.J. White to the "Cicala," river gunboat; Acting-Lieutenant H. S. Rogers to the "Cricketer," Lieutenant L. A. Bertram to the "Cricketer," and Commissioned Gunner W. Casack to the "Tamar," Hongkong, for charge of the torpedo stores of that base.

The keel of the new Japanese battle cruiser "Amagi" will be laid at the Yokosuka naval yard toward the end of this month. The "Amagi" is designed to have a displacement of over 41,000 tons and will be the largest warship of the Japanese navy carrying a few 41 millimetre guns and several 61 millimetre torpedo tubes. On her completion she will be a powerful addition to the Japanese navy.

It is very often the case in Japan that village festivals of tutelary gods, which are now in full swing in many places, are the occasion for bloody fights between inhabitants of the hamlets who have been at daggers drawn. Such a conflict recently occurred between the carriers of sacred cars, belonging to different hamlets at Senma-mura, Osaka-fu. In the fight some 30 villagers were injured, some of them seriously.

Other arrivals in Shanghai noted this week from Hongkong—presumably for the Autumn Races—are Mr. Soares and Mr. Cassel, both of them well-known owners in the Southern port. I hear excellent reports of the training work of Hongkong Chief, one of Sir Ellis Kadoorie's Stable, but unless the pony has vastly improved since his last public appearance I cannot say I am a lover of his chances when it comes to actual race conditions, observes "Janix" in the Shanghai Mercury.

According to the latest figures compiled by the census takers, the foreign population of Yokohama numbers 6,801, of which 4,140 are men and 2,661 women. Following are the number of foreigners in Yokohama by nationalities: Chinese, male 2,455, female 1,481; British, male 615, female 429; Russian, male 311, female 192; American, male 288, female 234; German, male 162, female 115; French, male 77, female 59; Portuguese, male 49, female 18; Swiss, male 22, female 21; Dutch, male 16, female 13; Danish, male 16, female 4.

Eight gaily decorated and illuminated tramcars, symbolic of the glory and beauty of Japan, will be sent through the streets of Tokyo from November 1 to 6 in honour of the dedication of the Meiji Shrine. Altars will be erected in practically every street of the city, while the people will go to the Meiji Shrine to worship and pay homage to the late Emperor. Booklets containing 100 poems in honour of the Emperor Meiji will be printed by the municipality and distributed to the people as large. The cars will be named and decorated as follows: Yatano Kagami (Yatagami meaning mirror, one of the three divine symbols of the Imperial family), Light of the Nation, the Imperial Crest (chrysanthemums and paulownia), Phoenix, Flower Wheel (a bed of chrysanthemums), Fachyo Koyo Mats (shaded pine trees), Glory of the Nation and Himalayan (cuckoo).

If American calculations are correct—and I have no reason to doubt that they are very far out—say a writer in a London paper—they have nothing to fear in shipbuilding so far as Japan is concerned. Provided that the two great naval rivals proceed with their respective shipbuilding programmes, so far as they have been disclosed, the United States will have a super Dreadnought fleet on either American sea-board equal to and in some respects superior to the combined Japanese fleet. American experts say that they could afford to put a Japanese fleet, while standing off its way from the East or nearer home. Tonnage and guns certainly, but not men, for the U.S. fleet is immensely outnumbered, as Mr. Daniels knows only too well. Everybody knows that it was with difficulty that the U.S. fleet carried out its duties in home and foreign waters during the late war, and that there was much trouble amongst the rank and file is equally well known.

HARBOUR MYSTERY.

TWO PEOPLE DISAPPEAR.

WERE THEY DROWNED?

A lighterman employed on board a Holt's lighter, reports his wife and son missing. They left the lighter soon after 9 o'clock last night in a dinghy to go to his mother's lighter some distance away, and were not seen again. He made enquiries on board his mother's lighter, but learned that his wife and son had not been on board. The man believes that the dinghy capsized, and that its occupants were drowned. The dinghy has not been found.

SHIP ABLAZE.

"HOCK-LEE" DAMAGED.

UPPER DECK DESTROYED.

A fire broke out on board the s.s. "Hock-lee," in the Kwong Fook Hing ship yard at Samshui-po last night. The flames, which originated in the cook house, spread rapidly and soon enveloped the upper structures of the vessel. The police and the Kowloon fire brigade turned out and after a strenuous struggle, put out the flames, but not before the upper deck of the vessel was destroyed. The damage done to the ship is not yet known. The "Hock-lee" is insured for $70,000.

A STRIKE IN THE OLDEN DAYS.

THE WOOD PICKERS COME OUT.

Time. The Paleolithic Age. Scene. Interior of a small cave, poorly furnished with stone seats and a bed of cut grass. A few stone spear heads are in one corner. A woman and child are crouching over a smoky fire. Enter the lord and master, a hirsute gentleman of somewhat ferocious appearance. The lord and master sits down despondently, munching an old bone, and they begin to talk in a language which (for the benefit of the uninitiated) has been modernised.

The wife. Why are you so gloomy, lord and master? The lord and master. By the mammoth's teeth, the news is bad, woman. The wood pickers are on strike. The wife. Strike? What is that? I do not know what it means. The lord and master. How should such a thing so low and mean as you understand the doings of their masters in this world? But (condescendingly) as I have nothing better to do and you do not seem to have a meal prepared with which I can amuse myself, I will explain. First tell me, however, what smithereth in yonder pot?

The wife. The shoulder and thigh bones of the ox slain by my master but one moon ago. Good, a savoury morsel. And what to follow?

The wife. A few steaks of Plesiosaurus which I obtained by barter from Long Nose's woman. The lord and master. (Graciously) The meal can do. So now to tell you of the strike. All the wood pickers have declared that they will gather no more wood unless they each receive two larger portions of meat than they have been given up till now.

The wife. And does this mean that I and little Flopears (pointing to the child crawling around picking up the bits of meat that have dropped from its father's bone and sucking its fingers with gurgling noises) will have no wood to-morrow for our monthly dresses? The lord and master. Yes, it means that unless the Chief can settle the matter (and few men can give two larger portions of meat) we shall all go about without any covering. The wife. (Shuddering) How dreadful! And Flopears and I were in a few days to go to Ratstails party and they are to have Ichthyosaurus back. But how can we go in these old faded dresses? The lord and master. It looks as though—What do you want, Bitten Leg? (to another equally ferocious looking individual who has just put his head round the entrance to the cave). Bitten Leg, I am taking round the news. The strike is settled. The wood pickers have agreed to go on with their work if one portion of meat is added to their charges. The lord and master. That's a relief. I was getting desperately anxious over my hunting costume. The woman and Flopears execute a kind of war dance and the gloomy atmosphere disappears.

IGNORANCE NO EXCUSE.

MOTORISTS PROSECUTED.

COMMANDER KILGOUR, R.N., FINED.

Before Magistrate Orme this morning, Traffic Inspector Garrod summoned Commander Kilgour, R.N., at the instance of Lance Sergeant Nicol and Indian Constable B188, for (1) leaving motor car No. 289 unattended in Pedder Street at 2 p.m., on October 11, and (2) driving the said car through Ice House Street (Brokers' Alley) without a permit, on October 13.

Commander Kilgour admitted the charges, but said that he was ignorant of the regulations, which were put in force during his absence from the Colony. He had been away for over two months. He left the car unattended for a few minutes only.

Inspector Garrod said that cars must not be left unattended in Pedder Street until after 5 p.m. Commander Kilgour's car was left outside the Hongkong Hotel for about 25 minutes. This regulation had been in force about four months now, and was published in all the papers.

The other regulation, the Inspector admitted, had been in force about two months only, but the meaning of all motor signs was given in the licence, and there was no excuse for ignorance. The Magistrate fined Commander Kilgour $5 on both charges.

MAJOR CAUTIONED.

Major Sturgess, R.G.A., who last week failed to appear before Magistrate Smith to answer a charge of driving a motor cycle in Kennedy Road, a thoroughfare closed to traffic, appeared in Court this morning. Defendant said that on the day in question, he drove up Garden Road, through Macdonnell Road to Kennedy Road. There was no disc at the junction of Macdonnell Road and Kennedy Road, and consequently, he thought the road was open. Inspector Garrod admitted that there was no disc at the junction of Macdonnell Road and Kennedy Road, but said there were discs at either end of Kennedy Road. A disc had now been put up at the junction. Major Sturgess had been warned once before, and when the police saw him on the road a second time, they naturally summoned him.

The Magistrate discharged the defendant with a caution.

OTHER CASES.

The driver of the Hon. Mr. Ho Fook's car, No. 296, who was next charged with passing on the left side of a stationary tram car, pleaded "guilty," and was fined $5.

A Chinese gentleman who was charged with driving Mr. Kitting's car, No. 432, without a driver's licence, admitted the offence and was fined $5.

Mr. J. A. Lam, of the Java-China-Japan Line, pleaded "guilty" to driving motor cycle No. 233 in Ice House Street (Brokers' Alley) without a permit, but said that he did not know that it was unlawful.

Inspector Garrod said that there was a disc at either end of the alley. There was no excuse for not knowing the meaning of the discs, as all motor signs were explained in the licence.

A fine of $5 was imposed. For passing on the left side of a stationary tram car in Des Voeux Road, the chauffeur of motor car No. 68 was fined $5.

Charged with driving motor car No. 280 without a driver's licence, a Chinese gentleman pleaded "guilty," and was fined $5.

The chauffeur of motor car No. 402, who was charged with having an insufficient rear light on his car, said that he did not know that the light was dim until his attention was called by the police.

A fine of $5 was imposed.

PORTUGUESE AT LAW.

ASSAULT CHARGE.

ALLEGED DISORDERLY CONDUCT.

Before Magistrate Smith this morning, a Portuguese named Joaquim Bernardino, of No. 13, Mosque Street, summoned Joao Maria Gutierrez, for (1) assault at No. 14, Robinson Road, on October 15, and (2) disorderly conduct by using abusive and insulting language at the same place. The defendant was also summoned by his wife, Flora Laboury Gutierrez, of No. 14, Robinson Road, on four counts, namely (1) trespass into her house, (2) using insulting and abusive language, (3) assault, and (4) damaging property. All these offences were also alleged to have been committed by the defendant on October 16.

Mr. H.K. Woo who appeared for the defendant, told the Magistrate that Mr. Leo d'Almeida for the prosecution, was down with the dengue fever and unable to attend Court. He therefore asked that a remand be granted. The Magistrate fixed November 2 for the hearing of the case.

DANGEROUS TRAVELLING.

BRITISH BORDER GUARD.

CONTINUOUS WATCH TO BE KEPT.

In consequence of the firing at the Canton-Kowloon express train in Pingtung on Sunday night by Kwangsi soldiers, Inspector Boulger and a posse of European Sergeants and Indian constables were sent out on post duty at the Samchun border last night.

Although there was much firing during the night in Chinese territory, nothing happened on the border, and incoming trains from Canton were not interfered with.

After a very wearisome night the guard was this morning relieved by a company of the 22nd Punjab and some Wiltshire men. It is understood that the border will be guarded day and night by military and police guards until the situation in Chinese territory is less disturbed.

The Chinese soldiers evidently received information that the frontier was being guarded, for they abstained from any offensive action all night.

BANISHEE RETURNS.

NINE MONTHS' JAIL.

AND FOUR HOURS' STOCKS.

Inspector Cooke this morning charged a Chinese before Magistrate Smith with unlawfully returning to the Colony yesterday, after having been banished on September 23 last, for a period of ten years.

Defendant said that he came back because he could find no work in the country.

Sentence of nine months' imprisonment with hard labour and four hours' stocks in lieu of the last day was passed.

NEW STEAMER SERVICE.

JOINT INTERESTS.

VANCOUVER TO THE FAR EAST.

The Times reports that an agreement has been concluded between Messrs. Alfred Holt and Co. (managers of the Blue Funnel Line), the Canadian Government Merchant Marine, Ltd., and the Canadian National Railways for a joint steamship service between Vancouver and the Far East, each steamship interest to provide an equal number of vessels for the new service. In accordance with the agreement the Canadian National Railways and the Canadian Government Merchant Marine, Ltd., will be represented in the Far East by Messrs. Butterfield and Swire, the agents for the Holt interests, so that the Canadian undertakings will secure the advantage of an old and powerful organisation.

It is pointed out that the scheme is a remarkable example of a working arrangement made in the joint interests of a Government and a private undertaking. The further point is made that Messrs. Holt, who have a large business with the Pacific Coast ports of the United States, may have been influenced in their decision to develop the trade with British Columbia by the discriminatory measures against shipping owned outside the United States contained in recent legislation in the United States.

CORRESPONDENCE.

INTERPORT CRICKET CRITICISM.

(To the Editor of the "China Mail.")

Sir,—May I encroach on your paper to answer what I consider very unfair comments by "Thrown Out" re a further trial of Alexander for interport honours. The comment reads as follows:—"I am satisfied that Alexander is not the bowler that we want and I do not consider him worth trial."

Now, Sir, Alexander is a young player and would with a little coaching turn out an asset to any team in Hongkong, both for Bowling, Bunting and Fielding, but such severe criticism as "Thrown Out's" is likely to take the heart out of any youngster.

The Bowling of Alexander in both matches compared favourably with all the others with the exception of Major Edward's and Mr. Woodhouse's. At batting, I consider he did not get a fair trial as the first match he did not bat and the second match was put in last and scored 9 not out.

There are others in Hongkong besides "Thrown Out" who understand Cricket and Sportsmanship, and I am sure the criticisms made by "Thrown Out" will not weigh with the selection committee for interport honours or Another Trial.

Enclosing my card.—Yours faithfully,

THE WORKS OF TIREJAMBE.

(To the Editor of the "China Mail.")

Dear Sir,—I much regret that until-to-day I overlooked your notes in Adversaria on my old friend "Tire-Jambe," as he always spelt it. I would venture, Sir, to join issue with you on two points.—You speak of his death but "Dead he is not, but departed, for the artist never dies."

Again you quote some lines that are entirely new to me, and I cannot but think you have fallen into an error. I agree it is extraordinarily difficult to procure a copy of my own, alas, owing to white ants, being reduced to a few tattered pages. But surely the pink poignancy of the following lines is a fairer sample of his contrapuntal style.

"See the tired traveller stands upon a Peak
While sunset splendours welter in the East.
His noble rage his flashing eyes bespeak
And finest frenzy boils within his breast.

At length he speaks. We listen—ah!—to hear
These wondrous words "My God, I'd like some beer."

Unspeakably utter, is it not?
Yours faithfully
AS ANGULO.

CIVIL SERVICE HANDICAP.

BRADBURY BEATS FINCHER.

Much interest was evinced in a match between Mr. Bradbury and Mr. Fincher (owe 15) at the Civil Service Cricket Club last evening, in connection with the Handicap Singles competition of the Club, which is now in progress. A large crowd attended.

The interest was more than ordinary in view of the fact that Fincher won the Club's Singles championship from Bradbury last year after the latter had held the title for two years in succession. Yesterday was the first occasion on which these two players have met since then.

The game was very exciting and close, and up to the last stroke, it was anybody's game. Bradbury after losing the first set by 4-6, settled down in the second set and won by 6-3. The next set was full of excitement, and after a very keen tussle, Bradbury won by 6-4, thus winning the game by 4-6, 6-3 and 6-4. In view of Fincher's record, Bradbury's friends are confident that the latter will regain the Club's championship title this year. The match promises to be a very interesting one.

Passengers to Europe are strongly urged to determine the exact date of the Atlantic sailing desired prior to departure from the Coast. Trade conditions on the Atlantic are so complicated as to make it difficult for all passengers to Europe, whether or not crossing the Pacific via C.P.O.S. steamers. Frequent sailings Montreal to Liverpool, London and Glasgow. Passage orders issued here, will cover all such reservations.

ENORMOUS WAR PROFITS.

In Calcutta, the chief legacy of the war was a large fund of capital amounting at least to £500,000,000 or $400,000,000—seeking industrial investment. The fund had accrued from war and post-war profits on manufactured yarn, hides, iron and steel, cotton yarn and piece goods, paper, building materials, engineering processes, and so forth. Calcutta had no excess profits tax until after the struggle was over. Those who could not, or did not take any part in the fighting made the most of their opportunity.

FOOTBALL.

QUEEN'S COLLEGE MATCH.

Teams representing the "Past" and "Present" met on the College ground at Causeway Bay, on Sunday afternoon, when a large gathering of present and past pupils of the College were present to bid bon voyage to Mr. B. Tanner, the Headmaster who is going home on well earned leave. The game was very interesting. The present pupils played exceedingly well, but the old boys were a little too good for them and won by 4 goals to 2 after a very enjoyable and clean game. Ip Kau and Ko Kin Fan were responsible for the old boys' goals, scoring two each.

INTERPORT SHIP COMPETITION.

Last week the "Ambrose" Stokers and the L7 XI met in the final for the Inter-Port Cup, but the match ended in a goalless draw, after 20 minutes extra play.

Yesterday at 4 p.m. on the Club ground, the two teams again met, and this time the Submarine team won decisively by 3 goals to nil. Play was keen and quick right through the game, and except for an incident towards the end of the match, when one of the Submarine men was ordered off the field after being cautioned against dangerous play, was unmarred by any unsportsmanlike behaviour.

There was a slight shifting of positions and change of men in the two teams as compared with last week's match. The Stokers played Harwood instead of Seymour, whilst the L7 fielded May in the place of Knott. The Stokers kicked off against the sun, and taking the ball well down failed to break through the Submarine defence and the ball going to the other side, Hannaford was unfortunate in handling the Submarine men not benefitting, however, the ball going behind. The Submarine forwards were strongly aggressive after this, Stenbury in goal for the Stokers being the only stumbling block in the way of the L7. After this there was a break away, and Downes for the Stokers came near to putting his side ahead several times, finally shooting over the bar at close quarters. The Stokers then carried the attack into enemy territory, and taking advantage of a mis-kick by Collins, Beardsall slung the ball into the net, thus putting the L7 one up. Kicking off, the Stokers tried hard to equalize, and two or three times almost succeeded, but Sergeant at half was not to be beaten, and just before the first half ended Beardsall again was on hand to score from a mis-kick, and half time went with the L7 two ahead.

From the re-start the game became very speedy, each side losing no time to work through to test their opponent's defence. Each set of forwards managed to beat the other side's defence. After a squabble, one of the L7 men, and this player not taking the warning to heart, and again forgetting himself, Mr. Thornton had no option but to order him off the ground. Playing with 4 forwards the Submarine could not get going quite as easily as before, but just before the final whistle they were awarded a penalty for hands, and Lebane making no mistake, scored the L7's third goal. Commander Turner, the new Captain of the "Ambrose" then presented the Interport Cup to Sergeant, the Captain of the winning team.

RUGBY.

ARMY BEAT "AMBROSE"

A very good game was witnessed on the Club ground last evening, when an Army team met the "Ambrose" XV, and defeated them in very convincing style, by sixteen points to nil.

The teams lined up as follows—
Army—Pte. Phillips (Wills); Capt. Tomory (R.A.M.C.) Capt. Murray (I.M.S., Capt.) Lieut. Mortimer (Wills) and Lieut. Mockridge (R.G.A.); Lieut. Emerson (22nd Punjab), and Lieut. Davies (R.G.A.); J. Ralston, Lieut. Sergeant (Wills); Capt. Dodwell (R.E.), Lieut. Morton (22nd Punjab), Capt. Bristow (R.G.A.), Capt. Housie (R.G.A.), Lieut. Bingham and a Sergeant of the Wills.
"Ambrose"—Chilcott; Holman, Lieut. Hunt, Lieut. McNair, and Lieut. Anderson; Lieut. Beech and Lieut. Callaghan; Lieut. Wilson, Sub-Lieut. Thynes, Rosser, Gunn and Lieut. Comdr. Bennett.

The "Ambrose" fielded only fourteen men, and both their attack and defence were poor. The Army on the other hand, had a well balanced team, very aggressive in their attacks and stubborn in the defence. Their three-quarters were very fast, and were all over the sailors.

The Army pressed at the start, and for along time the oval was in Navy territory, with an occasional attempt by the sailors' three quarters to get away, only to be promptly brought to earth. Capt. Tomory scored one try for the Army soon after play started. Lieut. Emerson played a sound game and scored two tries in quick succession. Lieut. Mortimer added a fourth try for his side. Capt. Murray converted two of the tries, and when the match ended, the Army were the winners by sixteen points (two goals and two tries) to nil.

CLUB v. ARMY.

This match will be played on the Club ground on Thursday, the 28th inst., commencing at 5.15 p.m., sharp. The Army will play in white and the Club in colours.

The following is the Club team—J. W. Albaster; G. A. V. Hall, A. M. D. Wallace, R. J. Hall, and A. G. Simpson; V. G. Smyth and G. E. Roberts; H. G. Baxter, M. A. Harper, N. C. McNamara, A. H. Cobb, C. J. Cooper, W. J. Hope, W. R. Andrews, and J. Ralston (Captain).

BILLIARDS.

PALACE HOTEL TOURNAMENT.

Last night's games in the Palace Hotel Handicap Billiards Tournament, resulted as follows—

C. McNab Wilson (—125) beat S. Kelly (—100), 250-223.

Wilson's highest breaks were 26, 20, 17 and 16; and Kelly's 23, 16 (twice) and 15.

J. Parkes (—200) beat W. Hill (—125) 250-177.

Parkes compiled breaks of 38, 20, 17 and 16, while Hill's best was 15. Only one game will be played to-night commencing at 9 p.m. when D. Urquhart (—100) will meet T. P. Cane (—150).

TENNIS.

SHANGHAI CHAMPIONSHIP.

The final of the Shanghai tennis singles championship played last week resulted in J. Tanaka, the holder of the title, being defeated by W. S. A. Pott, of the Columbia Club, by 6-4, 6-4 and 6-2.

Tanaka held the title for two years, but in the match with Pott his play was disappointing, and although Pott was handicapped by a wrenched knee he beat the champion in convincing fashion. Pott, who is a brilliant and forceful player, with "a terrific smash," will represent the Northern Settlement in the Interport matches with Hongkong, and the Shanghai papers hope that the new champion will be at the top of his form by then, when he should be relied upon to give the Hongkong players a run for their money. Tanaka, we understand, will also represent Shanghai in Hongkong.

SHANGHAI'S HEALTH.

FATAL ANTHRAX CASE.

HEALTH OFFICER'S WARNING.

The Public Health so far as Shanghai is concerned may perhaps be summed up by saying that we have come through the summer very well, observes Dr. Stanley, the Health Officer, in his report for September. Though cholera threatened, the incidence of acute diarrhoea, of choleraic type has never been more than moderate, and has scarcely caused any abnormal increase in the mortality rate. Latterly there was an increase in dysentery, of which disease 13 cases and 4 deaths were reported among the resident foreign community.

A fatal foreign case of anthrax was reported in which the infection appears to have been derived from a shaving brush. The brush in question had no mark indicating its origin; anthrax was not found on examination, but after using a new brush a few times it is to be expected that anthrax spores may have been washed away. Several such cases have during recent years been reported in Europe as certainly derived from shaving brushes made of horse hair from the Far East. This fatal case will serve as an indication of the danger locally, although the chance of being infected is remote, the present being the first foreign case of anthrax reported in Shanghai for many years. Shaving brushes should be avoided unless purchased from reputable firms and from good makers. Those of Far Eastern origin should be avoided. It would be advisable, after thorough washing with soap, to immerse any recently purchased shaving brush in 100 per cent. formalin in water for 24 hours.

Preparations are being made to begin a vaccination campaign early in October so as to get the community protected before smallpox comes. The position as regards smallpox in Shanghai is that the public generally are well vaccinated, most cases coming in from outside or occurring among recent arrivals both foreign and Chinese.

SHIPPING DISPUTE.

THE MEETING AT JARDINE'S.

"COMMENT NECESSARY."

Mr. J. Watson, Secretary of the Marine Engineers' Guild of China, wrote to the Shanghai Times on October 20—

In mentioning the protest of this Guild against the attempt of the Chairman of the Indo-China S. N. Co. to divert members' interests by laying before them certain terms with-out reference to this Guild, Mr. Johnstone, at the annual meeting of shareholders said: "Finally, so long as any members of the floating staff of the Indo-China Co. care to call at the office of the Company to see me or any of my successors, to discuss their own or the Company's welfare, I refuse to surrender the right to see them."

Mr. Johnstone has most ingeniously made it appear that the members in question called, at their own desire, to discuss the matter with him. The following order, circulated to the Masters of all ships in port, was issued the day before—

"You are particularly requested to attend an important Meeting concerning the Floating Staff to be held at this office in the Board Room at Noon the 24th instant. Kindly ask the Chief and Second Engineers, also the Chief and Second Officers to be present."

This was an order to attend, not a desire on the part of the Floating Staff "to call at the office of the Company to see me or any of my successors." Moreover, no reason for this order was given, the Company being subtle enough to conceal from the employees the matter on which they were summoned to attend. They were not aware that these matters were to be discussed until they were assembled in the Board Room. Comment is needless.

DIPHTHERIA—HOW IT MAY BE AVOIDED.

DIPHTHERIA is usually contracted when the child has a cold. The cold prepares the child's system for the reception and development of the diphtheria germs. When there are cases of diphtheria in the neighbourhood children this kind of cold should be kept at home and off the street until recovered. Give them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and they will not have to remain at home long. It also cleans out the culture beds, which form in a child's throat when it has a cold, and minimizes the risk of contracting infectious diseases. For sale by all Chemists and Storekeepers.

MATTERHORN TRAGEDY.

TERRIBLE ACCIDENT.

HANGING ALL NIGHT ON A JUTTING CRAG.

A terrible accident has occurred on the Matterhorn.

Five climbers from Lausanne, four men and one woman, had made the ascent during the day, and were returning, the woman and two men on one rope, and two men on the other, when the two men fell. One man named Thaler, aged 30, was killed on the spot, and the other, Gloor, aged 20, seriously injured. The rope caught on a jutting crag of rock, and the pair hung suspended at either end throughout the night. The others reached Zermatt and gave the alarm, and seven guides set off to the rescue. With much difficulty they succeeded in releasing Gloor from his terrible situation and recovering the body of Thaler. Gloor was found to have a deep wound on the head and several ribs broken.

With infinite difficulty he was brought down to the first cabin, and thence to the Black Lake Hotel, where he received medical attention. Hopes are entertained of his recovery. There is no mountain in Europe, or probably even in the world, which enjoys such a sinister reputation as the Matterhorn. Its very appearance, isolated and always capped with a wisp of cloud, is enough to lend credibility to the legend which, until the middle of last century, was universally held among the Swiss, that it was haunted. From Zermatt, it looks like a vast snow covered pyramid, 14,800 feet high, whose peak is just a trifle out of alignment—and its fascination has lured many first class climbers and guides to their death.

The Matterhorn was one of the last Alpine peaks to be ascended. Its conquest in 1865—just over 80 years ago—recalls the thrilling story of how on their exultant return from the summit the rope which tied the party together snapped, and four men were dashed over a 1,000 feet precipice. Lord Francis Douglas, the Rev. Charles Hudson, Mr. D. Hadow, and a guide were killed instantly, the bodies of the last three now resting side by side with many other mountaineers in the little churchyard at Zermatt. The body of Lord Francis Douglas has never been found.

The name of Mr. Edward Whymper, who organised the party, will always remain inseparably associated with the Matterhorn; for his attempts to conquer it covered a period of 20 years, and in estimating the valour of his endeavours it is essential to note that in all almost a score of climbers have since lost their lives on this fatal peak.

Of recent years the most thrilling experience on the Matterhorn was that which befell a party of Swiss who were enveloped in a violent thunderstorm near the summit. In this storm they were obliged to spend the night, with the result that one of them died and another was severely injured.

Teo Tean Seng, managing proprietor of Chop In Cheong Tek Kee, wine and spirit merchants, who, a few weeks ago, was fined $100,000 in the Kuala Lumpur Police Court, has entered notice of appeal on the ground that the verdict was against the weight of evidence and wrong in law. Ng Guan, who in connection with the same case was fined $70,000, has also entered notice of appeal.
